

What could you do with five hours a month?

Learn about a new culture?

Re-discover your own community?

Help someone to reach their potential?

The Centre for Equality and Diversity are currently seeking enthusiastic, compassionate people to mentor refugees in their community.

Volunteer mentors support and empower refugees to reach their potential whilst discovering and learning about the local community.

Interested? For further information about this unique volunteering opportunity, please call the RIES Mentoring Service office, on 01384 456166 or e-mail volunteering@cfed.org.uk
